Overview map and Embargoed Area

Terrain

Alpine meadows, grassland and forests at 2000-2300m above sea level. Runnability and visibility mostly good. In the lower parts, there is alpine forest which is tough to run in with a lot of details, stones and contours. Part of the course crosses physically and technically very demanding stone area called "Stone City".

Map

New map. Scale 1:10.000, 5m for Relay of the Dolomites and 1:7.500, 5m for Kids Relay. The map is produced in October 2021 by the mapmakers Viktor Kirianov, Vadym Prokopchuk, Mykhaylo Teslenko and Oleksandr Mykhaylov.

GPS live tracking

Live tracking will be used. On the 1st, 4th and 5th legs the 10 best teams will be asked to wear vests with a GPS unit.

Punching system

Touchfree SPORTident Air+ punching will be used. For those who do not possess SIAC Cards it will be possible to punch normal way.

It is possible to borrow SportIdent Cards for 2,00€

Prize-giving

The first 10 teams will be awarded value prizes. There will be also a prize-giving ceremony for the first three teams in both categories of Kids Relay.
